

MEET MARCY

Office Manager and Marketing Coordinator

HI, I'M MARCY
I HAVE WORKED AT
FOX VALLEY
CHIROPRACTIC
PHYSICIANS
FOR 3 YEARS

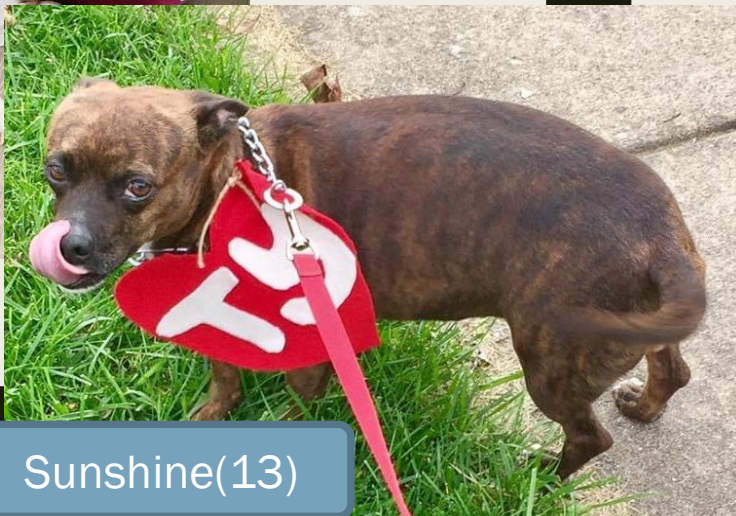

I AM MARRIED AND
HAVE FOUR GREAT KIDS.

Coco(6)

Gizmo(2)

Sunshine(13)

I AM A DOG LOVER.

AND IN THE PAST
FOSTERED FOR A
LOCAL SHELTER.

IF I COULD SAVE EVERY DOG I WOULD.

CURRENTLY OUR FAMILY IS HOME FOR THREE RESCUE DOGS.

In my free time, I enjoy reading and planning for my future.

When I pick up a book, I have trouble putting it down. I enjoy books about friendship, family, and love.

Presently I am focused on my family, and plan on pursuing Healthcare Administration as my children get older.

Marketing, my work behind the scenes

- My job is to inform, educate, entertain and spread the word about how our office is unique.
- In the office and online, I create and manage our content and posts.

I enjoy organizing and creating the power point programs for the office, as well as creating our online presence and social media content.

Check out our social media to see how we use it for our patients benefit.

- Like our Facebook and learn about healthy recipe's, interesting studies, chiropractic humor, and how we can help you stay pain free.
- Check out our website for recent blog postings and the most recent office updates.
- Look for our upcoming video blogs on our website and YouTube about injury preventing exercises, how to stay pain free and healthy

What I enjoy most about our team

I love working at FVCP. Watching the Dr's help patients become pain free is rewarding and I enjoy being part of the process.

I pride myself in being the smiling face that every patient sees.

Being in pain is difficult. I hope to help make our patients' day brighter the moment they walk into the office.

Looking forward to my future, I plan on working with our doctors and patients for many years to come.
